

British double-glass module manufacturer

Overview

Why should you choose CN glass for your double glazed units?

With CN Glass, you can expect reliable, made-to-measure sealed double glazed units built to last. Why Choose CN Glass for Your Double Glazed Sealed Units?

Choosing the right manufacturer of residential or commercial double glazed units can make a big difference in performance, cost-efficiency, and lifespan. Here's what sets CN Glass apart:

What are thin glazed units?

Our thin glazed units combine the latest duplex glazing glass manufacturing technology with the traditional aesthetic of period properties. Our thin sealed units is manufactured to faithfully replicate the look of single pane glazing while achieving modern standards for energy efficiency performance.

How long does a double glazed unit last?

With proper installation and materials, double glazed sealed units generally last 15-25 years. Our units come with up to a 10-year guarantee when installed by CN Glass. Are triple glazed sealed units worth the extra cost?

What is a double glazed sealed window?

A double glazed sealed window is made up of two glass panes. The glasses are held apart by a spacer bar. There is a gap between the panes of glass and sealed on all sides. Glass is known as a good conductor of heat. The gap between the two glass panes reduces the conduction of heat.

What is a duplex glazing system?

The Duplex glazing system is a useful and important system of creating beautiful windows. It is especially appropriate for conservation areas. We offer a 5 years Guarantee on all double glazing products. Armour Glass are one of the UK's leading manufacturers of double glazed units.

What is a U-value for double glazing?

Current Building Regulations state that any window you install today should have a U-value (a method used for comparing energy performance, see sidebar for more details) of no higher than 1.6, as most modern double glazing now has. All Armour Glass Ltd Double Glazed units reach or indeed exceed this requirement.
