

Imported grid-connected inverter wholesale

Overview

What are grid-connected inverters?

Grid-connected inverters (GCI) are used to feed power from renewable energy distributed generators into the grid*. They are widely used for this purpose. Repetitive control (RC) enables such inverters to inject high quality fundamental-frequency sinusoidal currents into the grid.

What is a grid-connected inverter equivalent model?

Grid-connected inverter equivalent model during normal operation in sequence components. During current limiting, the inverter's fault model is essentially a positive sequence current source with a current of $i \rightarrow L, \text{sat}$ in parallel with the filter capacitor as shown in Fig. 7 (reproduced from) where if $= iL, \text{sat}$. Fig. 7.

Which inverter delivers a sine wave?

Intertie inverters and utility companies deliver a sine wave. Square wave inverters have the lowest cost and efficiency and are not sold in this catalog. The price of the better quality inverters is low enough to make square wave inverters an unattractive choice.

What are the different types of inverters?

Stand-alone inverters are available with three basic power output waveforms: square wave, modified square wave (often called modified sine wave) and sine wave. Intertie inverters and utility companies deliver a sine wave. Square wave inverters have the lowest cost and efficiency and are not sold in this catalog.

What types of solar inverters are available?

Models include Solaron 250 kW Solaron 333 kW Residential, Industrial and Commercial Inverters with built-in disconnects from Solectria include PVI3000 PVI4000 PVI5000 PVI5300 Residential models and PVI13KW PVI15KW commercial and industrial models.

How does a stand-alone inverter work?

Stand-alone Inverters convert DC power stored in batteries to AC power that can be used as needed. Selecting an inverter for your power system based on the maximum load you will be powering, the maximum surge required, output voltage required, input battery voltage and optional features needed.
