What's all the fuss about, anyway?

The idea of living in a steel cargo container might seem strange, but it's not just a fad. There are considerable benefits to building houses with repurposed shipping containers. Here are a few: .

Here are answers to some of the most common questions we get from readers about building and buying shipping container homes.

A shipping container home is a house built with new or recycled steel shipping containers. Containers are most commonly found in two sizes – 20 feet by 8 feet or 40 feet by 8.

Despite all their positive attributes, we'd be remiss if we didn't also point out the potential disadvantages of buying a shipping container home.

What is a container home?

A Container Home could be your next home, a mountain retreat, lake house, backyard accessory dwelling unit, or even an AirBnB business opportunity! Smart, clean designs with lots of upgrade options allows you to have a custom home at an affordable price.

Are recycled shipping containers a good choice for off grid homes?

When it comes to off grid homes, recycled shipping containers are a logical starting point for DIYers, off gridders, and those just looking for an affordable home. Shipping containers are portable, economical, and can be arranged in countless ways to create the tiny house of your dreams or the ultra-modern multi-family housing unit.
