

UK mobile energy storage cabin prices

Overview

A compact, 12' x 10' open-plan portable office cabin might set you back around £6,750, while something a bit larger, like a 16' x 10' unit, could cost closer to £7,950. For a bigger cabin, like a 32' x 10' office, you could expect to pay around £11,950. How long do portable cabins last?

Available as single office cabins or linked modular complexes, our portable cabins fit a variety of requirements. Portable cabins are delivered and installed faster than permanent structures, and can be used immediately. Still, portable cabins can last for as long as you need them to because, while portable, they're also high quality.

What is a portable cabin used for?

However, portable cabins tend to be referenced as smaller versions of portable buildings. There are several uses for portable buildings, from security cabins to offices, toilets and storage. What are the benefits of a portable building or cabin?
